

Canada Post Board of Directors appoints Jessica McDonald Interim President and CEO

14-03-2018

The Canada Post Board of Directors is pleased to advise that Jessica McDonald, Chair of the Board, will be serving as President and Chief Executive Officer on an interim basis. The appointment will start Monday April 2, 2018, following the planned departure of President and CEO, Deepak Chopra, announced last August.

The Canada Post Board of Directors is pleased to advise that Jessica McDonald, Chair of the Board, will be serving as President and Chief Executive Officer on an interim basis. The appointment will start Monday April 2, 2018, following the planned departure of President and CEO, Deepak Chopra, announced last August.

A comprehensive and open process to find a new, permanent Canada Post President and CEO is well under way. The Canada Post Board of Directors is working in collaboration with the Government of Canada to find a candidate well-positioned to lead the Corporation and guide the implementation of the government's recently announced vision.

Ms. McDonald was appointed Chair of the Canada Post Board of Directors in December 2017. She has extensive experience in senior public sector management from a career spanning more than 25 years. Most recently, she served as President and CEO of BC Hydro, one of Canada's largest energy suppliers. Prior to that, she held many senior positions in the British Columbia government, including Head of the BC Public Service.

Source: Canada Post