

IPC certifies Barcelona- Office of Exchange

25-04-2024

On 25 April 2024, IPC CEO, Holger Winklbauer, handed over an IPC Certificate of Excellence in the management and processing of international priority products to Olga García, Correos Chief Operations Officer for the Office of Exchange at the Josep Tarradellas Barcelona-El Prat airport, which now holds a Certificate of Excellence until February 2027.

The IPC Certification of Excellence in the Management and Processing of International Priority Products has already existed for almost 25 years, becoming an essential instrument to measure the quality of the international postal service. Today, we have a total of 29 offices of exchange with a valid Certificate of Excellence.