

Absolutely to announce the acquisition of 3D Couriers

23-01-2018

Absolutely (the “Company”), one of the UK’s longest established courier companies, is pleased to announce the acquisition of 3D Couriers (“3D”) for an undisclosed sum. 3D is a specialist courier company operating from Fitzrovia, London, offering same-day, next-day & international delivery services. This transaction is in line with the Company’s growth strategy and follows the acquisition of MayDH in May 2017

Absolutely (the “Company”), one of the UK’s longest established courier companies, is pleased to announce the acquisition of 3D Couriers (“3D”) for an undisclosed sum. 3D is a specialist courier company operating from Fitzrovia, London, offering same-day, next-day & international delivery services. This transaction is in line with the Company’s growth strategy and follows the acquisition of MayDH in May 2017.

3D was established in 2003 and currently has an annual turnover of c.£2m. A London-based same-day delivery focused courier brand with international delivery capabilities, their range of delivery vehicles include push bikes, motor bikes, cargo bikes and vans. 3D is dedicated to the highest standards of customer service, professionalism and the latest in courier technology – key values that echo our own Absolutely brand. Further, the range of services and expertise of 3D will also complement the services and expertise offered by Absolutely and enhance the market position of the enlarged group.

Absolutely will acquire 3D’s corporate accounts and fleet of vehicles. The business will continue to be operated under its existing 3D brand in the short-term with the same team of experienced professionals to ensure a seamless transition. The management team of 3D will remain with the business following acquisition.

Jeremy Thompson, Managing Director of Absolutely says:

“We are delighted to have acquired 3D Couriers and look forward to welcoming their experienced team into the business. The clear dedication to exceptional customer service shown by 3D Couriers directly correlates with our own daily working ethos at Absolutely. The well-known same-day delivery expertise of the 3D team will be an important additional asset for Absolutely to further enhance our proposition for our clients. The transaction precisely aligns with our stated ambition to expand by carefully chosen complementary acquisitions over the coming years. this acquisition represents a fantastic addition to the business”

Doug Hutchinson, Managing Director of 3D Couriers says:

“Absolutely is a long-established and well-managed business and was an obvious choice for 3D due to the clear synergies between our organisations. I look forward to ensuring a smooth transition for our staff and clients over the coming weeks and I’m very excited to be joining the Absolutely team.”

Source: Absolutely